STAND UP PROGRESSION comedy course

led by LUKE TOULSON on SATURDAY AFTERNOONS in central London

This course is for gigging comedians who want to take their act to the next level.

Unlike most comedy courses, ours are led by current headline comedians who regularly perform at the biggest and best comedy clubs in the UK and abroad.

We also limit the numbers on each course to 12 to ensure each of you gets loads of individual advice and support.

On this course you will receive:

- Specific notes on your current set.
- Clear advice on how you can improve and develop you act.
- Help generating and honing new material.
- Inside knowledge on how to deal with nerves, heckles and dying.
- Advanced writing and performance tips.

The course is led by Luke Toulson

Luke is a very experienced stand up comedian, who has appeared on Russell Howard's Good News, and performs at the biggest and best comedy clubs here and abroad, including the world famous Comedy Store where he is a regular team member on The Cutting Edge topical comedy show. Luke has written for comedians on Mock The Week and Live at the Apollo, and has created and directed two Best Newcomer Nominated comedy shows at the Edinburgh Fringe.

Because there is nothing as good as a recommendation, here are some about this course from earlier this year:

"Worth every penny. Luke identified areas for improvement and focus, and offered many suggestions on where I could go with an idea - something you do not really get on other courses. To receive indepth advice from a pro like Luke is invaluable, and the speed at which he can break down and offer advice on a joke of yours is amazing. For everyone looking to move to the next level in comedy, this course is perfect for you."

"Insightful, supportive and practical – Luke works with you on material, delivery and stage presence; spotting weaknesses and offering advice that improves your act straight away. You'll save months flailing around on the circuit making stupid mistakes."

"Expectations surpassed, 100% recommended, and 100% worth the time/money. Luke has an amazing knack of deconstructing material and performance, and feeding back with utmost clarity and honesty, without the slightest hint of brutality ... and provides alternatives."

"Amazing value - Luke's a funny, honest and engaging teacher who's able to go into great detail about each person's act while still keeping everyone involved. Brilliant. Sign up now."

"This amazing course surpassed all my expectations. It was wonderful to see everyone on the course improve so much. I loved your approach to teaching, and your feedback was thorough and the recommended improvements were never esoteric."

"Luke's sharp perception of my comedy persona helped me solidify my writing structure and made my thoughts more coherent. He truly is a treasure trove of valuable information and it would be a shame to miss out on an opportunity that will most certainly benefit you!"

"A learning atmosphere that is relaxed" ... "Thoroughly enjoyable" ... "Gives confidence to try out and develop new things" ... "All done with great humour" ... "I have gained lots of tools" ... "Fast moving, with a good combination of one to one advice and opportunities to perform" ... "Great stuff!" ... "A great analysis of stand up" ... "Invaluable - I'd recommend it to anyone."

These workshops are only suitable for gigging comedians because the basics of stand-up are not included.
