AMUSED MOOSE COMEDY AWARD 2019

How to enter the talent search for the very best Edinburgh Fringe comedy shows by “unrecognised” performers

The winner's award includes a shiny Moose trophy, lots of exposure and glory, plus a London showcase with the income from that as the money prize which can be substantial.

Most years there are also the Outstanding Fringe Show award and the People's Champion Award, with the other finalists becoming Nominees

All entrants and their shows will have far more exposure than otherwise, by being watched by numerous comedy industry panellists, including producers, agents and reviewers

In 2018 Tania Edwards won, and Damian Clark and Police Cops were also awarded trophies.
Previous winners include Richard Gadd, Marcel Lucont, Tony Law, Larry Dean and The Kagools

To enter: film some previews, and submit one as part of your entry, ideally by 16 July to give more of the industry panel the opportunity to unhurriedly watch the film of your show online.

Entries close on Sunday 28 July at 11.59pm with 24 hours grace until 23.59 on Monday 29 July but absolutely only for resolving technical issues and if agreed with the organisers (comedy@amusedmoose.com) before the deadline of 11.59pm on 28 July.

HOW TO ENTER:

Check that your show qualifies to enter (see Entry Conditions and Criteria below)

Film previews of your 2019 show full length and unedited, at viewable & audible quality before mid-July ideally (though entries don't close until 28 July) and choose one to submit (There is no need for professional filming, but ensure that you can be heard and seen, and that the film runs right through without stopping.

Suggestion 1: check beforehand that the camera can film for over an hour without stopping – if it stops, try its next lower resolution.

Suggestion 2: check before filming the settings etc your camera needs so you can be seen, and where it needs to be so you can be heard.

Suggestion 3: try uploading it, to ensure that it will upload completely – if it won't, try uploading or filming at a lower resolution)

Upload the film of your preview onto YouTube or Vimeo ideally - which can take hours - and maybe password protect it.

After uploading check again that the link works and the upload runs for the entire show

Go to the Entry Form (the link to that is on page 3) and enter
